

Bob Martin

Senior Consultant

Summary of Experience

Bob Martin's primary focus has been implementing productivity improvement in business and the workplace. Bob specializes in facilities planning, material handling system design, and operations improvement for manufacturing, warehousing, and distribution.

Professional History

Operations Associates; Senior Consultant
CRS Serrine & Jacobs Engineering; Project Manager
Burlington Industries; Engineering Manager
U.S. Army, Corp of Engineers; Company Commander

Education

A.S., Mechanical Engineering, Gaston College
Academic Graduate, Construction Engineering, U.S. Army
Engineering School

Specialized Training & Education

- Factory Physics: The Science Behind Lean Manufacturing
- Theory of Constraints
- Designing Facilities for Automation
- Maynard Operation Sequence Technique (MOST)
- Time Study

Publications & Presentations

- Materials Handling Techniques in Industry, Boeing Co. Internal Seminar
- Identifying & Implementing Handling Solutions, Automotive Supplier Excellence Expo
- Assessing & Improving Business Operations, The Arrow
- Business Process Improvement, The Arrow

