

John E. Pettett, Jr.

Healthcare Specialist, Healthcare Division

Summary of Experience

John Pettett is a senior healthcare manager with an extensive background in new business startup and health care operations management. Providing strategic vision to organizations, John possesses strong team building and mentoring skills. John is an analytical, results-oriented individual, but realizes that those results flow from people; John has an strong ability to develop positive relationships with physicians.

Professional History

- Operations Associates; Healthcare Specialist, Healthcare Division
- Greenville Hospital System; Administrator, University Medical Group, Department of Surgery
- Self Regional Healthcare; Director of Cancer Program
- Pee Dee Health Care, P.A./Carolina Respiratory Solutions; Manager
- Carolina Multispecialty Associates; P.A., CEO
- Greenville Hospital System; Executive Director, Physician Practice Development
- Memorial Hospital and Medical Center; Assistant Director / COO
- Geisinger Medical Center; Administrator

Education

- MS, Health Administration, Duke University
- MBA, Wharton Graduate School of Business, University of Pennsylvania
- BA, Economics, Wofford College

Specialized Training, Education, & Registrations

- Fellow in the American College of Health Care Executives

