

Rocky S. Sasser

Culture & Improvement Consultant, Healthcare Division

Summary of Experience

Rocky is a highly accomplished strategic project leader with more than 20 years experience improving business bottom lines through alignment of human resources with business objectives.

She brings together leadership, strategy, people, metrics, and processes, to improve programs and processes. A thought leader with deep business acumen, Rocky provides hands-on project leadership while managing complex client relationships, building business relationships and engagement at all levels.

Her particular areas of expertise include process improvement, change management, metrics development and tracking and performance management.

Professional History

- Charleston office of Griswold Special Care; Director
- Humaneering® International; Principal, Organizational Effectiveness
- Humana; Director, Organization Development
- Geneva Steel; Director, Delta Transformation
- Fluor; Senior Manager, Organization Effectiveness

Education

- Ed D, Human Resource Development, Vanderbilt University
- MA, Ed Supervision & Administration, University of North Carolina at Greensboro
- BA, Psychology, Wake Forest University

Specialized Training, Education, & Registrations

- Organization Development Network member
- SPHR Certification (Senior Professional in Human Resources)

